Bulletin No. 149

There is a valid way to justify a lower value for your client's pension on marriage breakdown, in many situations.

This method is easily explained and can be supported by case references. It is also supported by most pension valuers, although few use it to reduce the values they produce in their reports.

For a complete explanation of how to use this method to legally reduce the value of your client's pension, please contact us at 1-800-891-9122 or fax us at 1-705-749-6762.
