TEACHER'S PENSIONS AND MARRIAGE BREAKDOWN

Stephanie Wood, Legal Counsel for the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board, recently wrote an article on this subject. She discusses in detail all of the contentious areas when dealing with If and When Agreements and Survivor Benefits. It includes full discussion about Dividing the Pension Payments at Source, Providing the Inflation Adjustment for the Non-Member, Continuation of Payments on Death of the Non-Member, Options for the Non-Member when the Member Terminates Employment and Spousal Survivor Benefits.

We recommend this article as being both interesting and informative. The author provides considerable information that is useful for the family law practitioners who are faced with drafting or approving an "If and When" agreement for the spouse of a teacher.
